

OPERATION DHANGU SURAKSHA, PATHANKOT

On 01 Jan 2016, a group of Pakistan based terrorists attacked Air Force Station, Pathankot with an aim to destroy the strategic assets deployed at the Air Force Station and also to cause maximum casualties. Due to gravity of situation, National Security Guard was mobilised by air to Pathankot. On its arrival, National Security Guard took over the control of the situation and immediately search and destroy operation was under taken by deploying multiple squads to neutralise terrorists held up at number of places. The operation was extended till late night on 04 Jan 2016 due to thick foliage, vastness of area and lack of cover. During the conduct of the operation, six terrorists were neutralised by National security Guard. The operation was a classical example of National Security Guard's motto of 'SARVATRA SARVOTTAM SURAKSHA'.
