From The Director General’s Desk

It gives me immense pleasure to greet all of you in the New Year, even as we cherish our achievements of a wonderful year gone by and look ahead with anticipation to the challenges of the days ahead. This quarter has witnessed hectic activity amongst the “Black Dungarees”. We have leaped forward in cementing our bond with the Special Forces community of the world with close interaction, joint training and purposeful exchange of visits. The 17th International NSG Seminar on Counter Terrorism on 8th & 9th Feb 2017 will add another major chapter to this endeavour. We have continued to hone our skills to meet emerging challenges and strengthened synergy with states through capacity building exercises. And, in all this, it was a proud moment to see the Black Cats on the Rajpath as the Nation cheered for us. We have taken major strides in our quest to transform into “Scholar Warriors” including associating with the ‘Centre for Anti Terrorism Studies’ to guide us along this path of knowledge. We are committed to providing a good quality of life to the force while fulfilling our duties towards a healthier environment.

The defining moment of the quarter was definitely the electrifying presence of the NSG Commandos on the Rajpath. In a historic decision, NSG announced itself by fielding a contingent for the Republic Day Parade. The shimmering Black Knights were a beholder’s delight in their sheer awe inspiring presence. A contingent of 113 commandos showcased our resolve to excel on land, water & air. Their total commitment and resolve to set exemplary standards prompted the DG to award his Commendation Card to the entire contingent in an impromptu announcement post the stupendous performance on the Rajpath.

The Black Cats continued to sharpen their fangs while training for any eventuality. The teams prepared for various scenarios in different contingencies. From protecting VIPs to metros, airports, trains; to hotels, stations and other high value target around the country, seamless coordination was achieved with all stakeholders.

A contingent of Thai SF carried out Joint CT Exercise from 24 Oct to 05 Nov 2016.

The bomb disposal team responded swiftly to an emergency to defuse a live bomb found in a residential area in Delhi on 28 Jan 17 once again displaying remarkable skills and courage.

The Police Training Group (PTG) oversaw the flawless conduct of Agni Pariksha-III, the 3rd National Joint CT Exercise. Crack CT teams from 10 states and a team of 11 SRG took part in the exercise from 10-24 Nov 2016. In a special effort, the gp trained 40 personnel of Bangladesh Police including officers and ladies of RAB, Metro & Armed Police.

Flagship Courses. After a gruelling 12 weeks, Conversion Courses SAG-102 & SRG-106 concluded successfully in Dec 2016 with induction of 217 & 138 Commandos, respectively. 126 Police Commandos were also trained over 12 weeks to be trainers.

The freshly rechristened National Institute of Counter Terrorism (NICT- erstwhile Training Centre) remained the hub of activity with a spate of vigorous courses and exercises dotting the period.
Close on the heels came the 2nd National Counter IED Exercise: Agnishaman-II from 01-08 Dec 2016. Counter IED teams from eight states & CISF shared their best practices while learning a trick or two from the experts of National Bomb Data Centre, NSG. With the country facing the IED menace in every nook & corner, this exposure prepared them to effectively deal with several peculiar scenarios which the BD teams face frequently.

Equipment Display Several new equipment were displayed during the two national exercises to give a peek into the technology of the future to assist SF. Participants evinced keen interest in the exhibitions, also encouraging the “Make in India” drive.

A starry eyed batch of 125 IPS Probationers visited HQ NSG and the Manesar Garrison to get a feel of the Force. They left obviously impressed.
NHRC Debate

The NSG conducted the yearly NHRC Inter CAPF debate, setting exceptional standards of conduct. In a keenly contested final, Shri Ajay Sharma of 13 SRG won the English Debate while Shri HK Sharma of 13 SRG won a consolation prize.

Sainik Sammelan

The New Year dawned, spreading sunny smiles everywhere. The fraternity has also embraced the new beginning with a fresh resolve to live up to the faith reposed in us.

The DG addressed all ranks of the NSG on 02 Jan 2017, priming them for the challenges ahead.

CENTRAL EVENTS

Making Us Proud

The impetus on modernisation and up gradation is manifesting in the mushrooming of several critical facilities which aim to enhance the overall standard of training and living of the Black Cats. A state of the art Niranjan Auditorium with a virtual classroom, 580 men barrack, innovatively designed confidence jump, IED Modular Range, modern equipment like ROVs & target systems will add to the world class infrastructure in Manesar Garrison.

At Peace with Nature

Affinity of the forces towards everything green and their penchant for metamorphosing tepid surroundings into salubrious climes have been a traditional trademark. Initiatives stressing on polythene free zones, arboriculture plans, resource conservation & hygienic waste the differently abled children gave a wonderful expose into their beautiful minds.

Station Clientele Meet

A clientele meet was organised in the Manesar Garrison on 07 Jan 17 to obtain a direct feedback about the various administrative issues of all ranks with a view to improve the quality of life.

We Care

In a heartwarming gesture, the DG opened NSG’s doors for the labourers working on the campus by providing schooling facilities & food for their young children.
