

DIRECTORATE GENERAL NATIONAL SECURITY GUARD

PRESS RELEASE

On the occasion of Republic Day 2018, the President of India is pleased to award "Police Medal for Meritorious Service" to the following officers of elite National Security Guard :-

| Sl.No. | Particulars of the awardees                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Photographs |
|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| 1.     | Sh Yatindra Nath Rai, Addl Judge Attorney General, is a CRPF officer and has put in 20 years of unblemished service. In CRPF, he led various operations in extremists infested areas of both western and eastern theatres of the country with complete professional competence. He was inducted in NSG in July, 2015 where he has exhibited the highest standard of professionalism in revamping and strengthening of legal setup. In recognition of his meritorious service of 20 years, he has been awarded Police Medal for Meritorious Service on the occasion of Republic Day 2018. |             |
| 2.     | Sh. Suchit Tyagi, Team Commander is a CISF officer and has put in 23 years unblemished service. In CISF he served in various capacities NE region. He also served Delhi Metro in initial CISF induction phase during 2007 and ensured a foolproof security of Metro. He took various initiatives for paperless office and established a complete network of 250 computers at NISA Hyderabad. In recognition of his 23 years of meritorious service, he has been awarded Police Medal for Meritorious Service on the occasion of Republic Day 2018.                                       |             |
| 3.     | Sh. M. Ramamoorthy, Team Commander is a CRPF officer and has rendered about 29 years of unblemished service. In CRPF, he rendered his excellent services in various capacities over 27 years. On his induction in NSG in Jan, 2016, he was posted to Training Centre of NSG at Manesar where he has displayed his professional competence in effective functioning and streamlining of Training Centre. In recognition of his 29 years meritorious service, he has been awarded Police Medal for Meritorious Service on the occasion of Republic Day 2018.                               |             |

4.

Sh. Amrendra Kumar, Assistant Commander is a CISF officer and has put in more than 33 years of unblemished service including almost five years service in NSG. In CISF, he served in various capacities in various field formations/industrial / security installations with a hallmark of professionalism. As a secretarial hand, he worked with complete dedication and commitment for streamlining the function of various establishments of the Force. He was inducted in NSG in Oct, 2013. In recognition of his 33 years of meritorious service, he has been awarded Police Medal for Meritorious Service on the occasion of Republic Day 2018.

